From the Creators of the OKKO Sweet Romance Game Series, Comes their Newest Game Title: Decoding Desire
Pre-registration Ongoing!

TOKYO, Japan—Providing all-original Japan-made romance simulation game applications to over 120 countries globally under their popular game title series OKKO Sweet Romance, OKKO Incorporated (Headquarters: Suginami-ku, Tokyo, Japan, CEO: Takashi Ike) announces the start of their pre-registration campaign for their newest English game title Decoding Desire today, February 23rd, 2017 from 17:00 (UTC+9).

Joining the pre-registration campaign will enable the players of Decoding Desire to receive special in-game items as a reward upon its official release, for a more favorable game experience.

Pre-registration Campaign Overview:

Register a valid e-mail address on the official Decoding Desire website located here (http://okko.jp/apps/lovelabo_en/) to receive the following in-game items as a reward:

- A limited edition pre-registration campaign avatar background item, "Research Lab".
- "Affection Points Up +5" item for main character, Yuushin Kuze's story route.

Players can also receive these two additional in-game items should they complete the tutorial stage of Decoding Desire:

- All Scenario Ticket x2
- Gacha Ticket x2

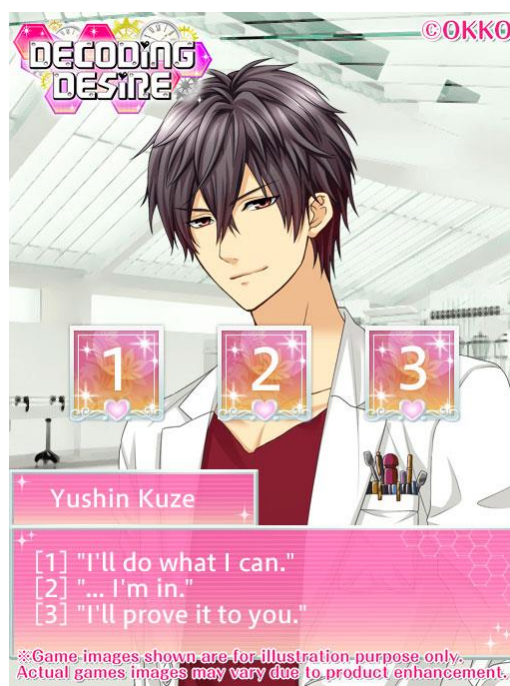

Game Synopsis

Joining a team of highly-skilled engineers on a highly-classified robotics project, your assignment—as a brilliant, top-notch clinical psychologist—to advise, instruct and insinuate these eye-catching, outstanding male researchers on... how to love!?

“It's your job anyway.
Who cares if it's just a kiss?”

How far can reason overcome instinct, when plunged right into a mare's-nest!?

Probe deeper into the various issues of love, romance, maturity and more, then ask yourself... if 'Love' truly exists.
